Taken From Garrard's website:-

Today, Garrard is renowned worldwide for beautiful jewellery, royal regalia, sporting trophies, orders, decorations and medals, as well as state and corporate gifts. Garrard has a heritage unrivalled by any jewellery house today. Throughout its history, Garrard has had the honour of working closely with the British Royal Family, as well as many Royal families around the world. First commissioned in 1735 by Fredrick, Prince of Wales, and appointed Crown Jeweller by Queen Victoria in 1843, Garrard has served each subsequent British monarch, creating many beautiful jewels. These include iconic tiaras (still worn at state occasions) as well as the beautiful sapphire cluster engagement ring worn by the Duchess of Cambridge.
