Description

Antique Tom Hill Wooden Boot Jack.

A fine quality free standing beech-wood boot jack with ivorine trade label "Tom Hill, London, S.W.1, (Knightsbridge) Ltd". The front frame being two well turned supports finished with a turned T-handle that operates the wooden splat. The foot plate is covered in red leather and is also shaped to take the heel of the boot whilst the central wooden splat restrains the toe area of the boot. This type of traditional boot jack makes removing your foot from the boot a lot easier and with out the need for help. Ideal for riding boots or Wellington boots.

This is a serious and strong boot jack.
