Description

Carved Alpine Trophy - Swiss Mountaineering Carving Wall Plaque.

This striking antique wooden plaque with three-dimensional relief captures the spirit of the Alps in warm, exquisitely hand-carved linden, (lime) wood. At its center sits a shield embossed with a Swiss cross, flanked and supported by traditional mountain equipment: crossed ice axes, a coiled climbing rope, a leather binocular case and a flask in wicker holder, a celebration of classic Swiss mountaineering heritage. Above the shield is the finely detailed head of a chamois (or ibex) framed by laurel-like foliage.

The piece has a clear mountaineering theme, making it a compelling decorative object for country houses, mountain cabins, galleries, or collectors of European alpine memorabilia. The natural wood finish and detailed carving give the plaque strong visual depth and antiqued character.
