Description

Shooting Print, On the Covert Side.
A rare shooting photogravure of a female subject by Arthur Wardle. As well as being unusual to have a female subject it is also an unusual portrait. It is framed and mounted in a modern wooden frame. The feminine shooting picture is signed by the artist and printed in the top margin 'Published Sept. 1st 1893 by Radtke, Lauckner & Co., 6, East 18th St. New York, entered according to act of congress in the year 1893 in the office of the librarian of congress at Washington'.
