Description

"The Oxford Coach 1830" by Cecil Aldin.

A colourful coaching chromolithograph in original frame with title after Cecil Aldin, The Oxford Coach. The image depicts the Oxford - London coach racing past a young girl walking a pig on a leash. On the coach door is Oxford - London, whilst on the bodywork High Wycombe and Beaconsfield. Published by Louis Meyer: The Black & White Gallery. 13 A Pall Mall. London. February - 1900 - Copyright Registered'

Louis Meyer helped Aldin to break into the print market by being one of the first to encourage him to design carriage and stagecoach pictures.
