Description

Cecil Aldin Terrier Prints.

A classic piece of Aldin's canine work, 'The Good Boy & The Bad Boy'. The pair of coloured lithographs are mounted and in a single frame. The size shown is for the mount and frame, each picture is 34 cm high by 24 cm wide. In the first picture, 'The Good Boy', a Sealyham Terrier is sat calmly in the arm chair with a rubber ball by his feet. The second, 'The Bad Boy', the dog has torn the cushion and ripped apart a news paper, there is also a torn slipper in the crease of the arm. Printed in the Illustrated London News 1933.
