Description

Snaffles WW I Military print 'Jock'.

A hand coloured Snaffles lithograph entitled 'Jock' showing a kilted sergeant lighting his pipe. In the right hand margin is a remarque depicting a Scottish piper playing his bag pipes. The print is with a Snaffles signature in pencil and the Snaffles blindstamp, nicely framed and mounted in a new black frame.

Charles 'Snaffles' Johnson Payne (1884 —1967) was an English painter who specialised in water colours, and who's subject matter was invariably equestrian (racing, hunting, polo and pig sticking), military or a combination of these. Snaffles had a very distinctive style by showing just one person in detail, in addition he added remarques and amusing captions to supplement the pictures and main title.
