Description

Trout Fishing by Douglas Adams.

A very atmospheric fishing photogravure taken from the original painting by Douglas Adams and signed in pencil by the artist. The angling picture is known as 'Trout Fishing' and is the view from the Sligachan Hotel on the Isle of Skye. The picture was published in 1893 and shows two fishermen in the foreground, an old three arched stone bridge in the mid ground over the River Sligachan in Isle of Skye, Scotland, with the Cuillin mountain range in the distance. Publishing details 'London, Published June 1st 1893 by I.P. mendoza, Printseller & Publisher to H.M. The Queen, St. James's Gallery 4a King St., St. James's S.W. Copyright registered'. Wonderfully framed in original walnut reeded frame with gold slip.
