Description

Portable Mahogany Anglers Collectors Reservoir or Cabinet.

A fine transportable mahogany fishing fly box, cabinet with graduated drawers containing various flies, lead weights, lures and angling equipment. The fly fishing collectors cabinet with five drawers lined with green baize and an hinged lid which opens to reveal a six compartment top also lined with green baize. There is a lock but no key, the lid will lock closed with the inset brass side hooks. The drawers will lock closed by a brass bar which passes through from the top compartment all the way down through the drawers to prevent them from opening. A good collection of tied fishing flies, metal lures and fly tying equipment. The lid with central brass carry handle and brass plate engraved 'J. Paterson'.
