Description

Vintage Bronze Football Figure
A very attractive bronze sculpture depicting a footballer poised in motion, balancing dynamically as he prepares to kick a, lace-up football with his right foot with exceptional detail. The soccer figure has a wonderful warm colour and aged patina, which add considerably to its character and appeal.
The bronze is signed 'Müller' to the rear of the base and is attributed to the noted Austrian sculptor Hans Müller (1873-1937), who was renowned for his finely detailed, patinated bronze figures depicting athletes, workers, and scenes from everyday life.
The footballer is mounted on a simple circular cylindrical marble plinth in a distinctive pinkish-brown tone, measuring approximately 4½ cm high. The combination of the dynamic figure, beautifully aged bronze surface, and understated marble base makes this an especially appealing example of vintage sporting sculpture.
