Description

Vintage Pair of Leather Children's Football Boots.

This charming pair of early 20th century children's football (soccer/rugby) boots is a striking example of vintage sportswear. Crafted entirely from leather, including the sole, these boots showcase the rugged construction typical of the era. The toe area features polished, hardened leather reinforced with a traditional toe strap for durability and protection. Each sole is fitted with six studs, formed from stacked cylindrical leather discs and secured with three nails. The soles are stamped with the numbers '11' and '7775'. Despite their age, the boots remain in a good used condition and offer a beautiful glimpse into the evolution of sporting equipment.
