Description

Rowing Scull Coffee Table.

An unusual coffee table made from a section of a cut down 1940's racing rowing scull. A striking and elegant piece of functional art-ideal for the rowing enthusiast or anyone who appreciates craftsmanship and the repurposing of unusual items into furniture. Taken from a plywood rowing scull, possibly an eight or four crew boat, the curved body of the scull section is mounted on custom wood supports. A glass top has been fitted, the sliding wooden seat, wooden footrests with heel supports and structural part of the boat is visible under the glass surface.
