

Long Nose Golf Club, McEwan, Musselburgh

Sold

REF: 17367

Height: 102 cm (40.2")

Description

ANTIQUE MCEWAN GOLF CLUB.

A fine long nose short spoon in good original condition by McEwan of Musselburgh. The hickory shaft is 36 inches long with a thick sheepskin grip and marked with the owners stamp "D. MCGREGOR" and also "GRH".

The McEwan family business of clubmaking started as far back as 1770. James McEwan set up his business at Leith and was the first of six generations of the family engaged in club making. This was a unique family totally involved in professional golf who, though principally club makers where also first-class players.

PRICE WAS 1950