Description

Victorian Brown Leather Attaché Case.

A genuine vintage dark brown leather briefcase also known as despatch case, document case or attaché case. The maker is unknown but it has great tram line tooling to the main part and more to the top with an extra flourish. The durable brief case is fitted with a single central brass lock and a carry handle to the top. It has one compartment for papers and documents and is with a triangular profile. Ideal for carrying ipads or other tablets.

A stylish stiff hide case in excellent original condition.
