Description

Vintage Small Faux Crocodile Suitcase.

A good quality crocodile leather suitcase of small proportions. The bottom section of the case is slightly chamfered, thus making opening and closing of the lid easier, a sure sign of quality. The case has four domed chrome studs on the back and four on the bottom for it to rest on and not scratch the leather. The case is fitted with nickel slide locks stamped 'British Make'. The handle is shaped for comfort.

A good early 20th Century small sized suitcase.
