Description

Cambridge University Association College Servants Double Rowing Photograph.
It shows the names and weights of the crew as:-
Bow. C.H. Wadham….9.4; 2. T. Hall….10.8; 3. C. Ashman….10.1; 4. F.W. Pepper….12.0; 5. C. Savidge….10.6; 6. A.H. Brown….10.11; 7. A. Searle….10.8; Str. O.R. Lane….10.6; Cox. F. Ison….8.11; Coaches:- S. Cope Morgan A.Ludman.

Stearn & Sons photography studio was founded in around 1866 by Thomas Steran, an English photographer. Thomas Stearn pioneered the use of modern photographic techniques, and as early as the 1890's photographed the boat races from the riverbank. Thomas produced a number of children who became photographers in adult life - Henry C. Stearn, Walter James Stearn and Rupert Stearn.

The College servants (staff) were just as successful as the undergraduates on the river and won the inter Collegiate Cup in 1922-24 and 1932.
