Description

VINTAGE TENNIS RACKET, FH AYRES

A good F. H. Ayres wooden Tennis Racket entitled 'The Tournament, Davis Cup'. The racket has some good colourful trade design labels and still has it's original leather grip and butt cap. Some of the strings are slightly damaged.

C.1920

F. H. Ayres was established in 1810 and manufactured many sporting goods such as golf and games as early as the 1880's. The 'Maltese Cross' mark of F.H.Ayres was in use from about 1910, they were eventually bought out by Slazenger.
