

Golf Advertising Penfold Man

Description

Antique Advertising Penfold Man.

A colourful plaster advertising figure with an oversized cap on a wooden stand with the slogan: He played a PENFOLD. There are some marks to the paint work and some restoration has taken place but this is to be expected as he would have been a display on the counter in the pro shop advertising Penfold golf balls.

Made in England painted on the back of the plinth.

A great golfing collectable.
