Description

Vintage Style Ski Photography, Framed Alpine Ski Photograph, Descent in Powder.

'VIRGIN POWDER', a modern framed and mounted black and white photograph after an original 1930's skiing photograph. The frame is black with burgundy undercoat, the glazing is clarity+ premium synthetic glass. Black & white alpine photos are the perfect addition to any home or ski lodge, so please do check out our other ski photos and winter landscapes.

Prior to being a recreational activity skiing was purely a means of travelling from A to B through the snow, it only started to become the sport it is today in the mid-1800's.

These framed photos are made to order so please be patient, colours and tones may slightly differ to those illustrated.
