Description

Satirical Picture, Print By Walter James Allen Of The Jubilee Banquet.
A very rare original hand coloured photo lithograph 'McQueen's Dogs At The Jubilee Banquet'. The litho is of anthropomorphic dogs at the Queens Jubilee Banquet, The image of a dog in a blue dress uniform, proposing a toast - The Empire! "We are the Empress' Sons". The extra publication details on the lithograph 'Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1886 by M. Knoedler & Co. in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington', 'London, Published Dec. 1st 1886 by F.C. McQueen & Sons. 181 Tottenham Court Road, W, Stiefbold & Co., Berlin. Knoedler & Co., New York, Copyright Registered'.

A satirical take on the celebration of Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee, 1887.

Would be great partnered with two other Jubilee Banquet pictures #28820 - The Army! "have you an army ready say you?" & #28822 - 'The Volunteers! Vows to fight in Thy defence', all three can be seen in the second to last image.
