Description

Snaffles WWI Military Print, The Bonnie Blue Bonnets frae ower the Border.

A good Snaffles WWI military print entitled 'The Bonnie Blue Bonnets frae ower the Border'. It is a hand coloured lithograph, the main picture shows two pipers leading wounded troops through the ruins of a village in the left margin are three remarques. One shows a solider in the trenches aiming his riffle, the second is a soldier standing wrapped up against the cold smoking a pipe, the third shows a soldier with his sleeves rolled up digging with a shovel. This Charles "Snaffles" Johnson Payne (1884 1967) picture is in excellent original condition and framed in an old black frame with green mount.
