Description

Early 18th Century Fishing Picture, Lady Fly Fishing

A rare 18th century fly fishing picture, made even more rare by the subject matter of a female angler. She has caught a fish and is pulling it into the bank. A wicker creel is by her feet ready to but the catch in. Behind her, through the trees, can be seen a gentleman in a red coat and boots also fishing. A great piece of colourful 18th century angling art.
