Description

Antique Taxidermy Chub Display in Glazed Diorama Case
This striking antique taxidermy tableau features two beautifully preserved chub, mounted in a glazed ebonized display case. Presented against a hand-painted riverbank backdrop with naturalistic reeds, grasses, and riverbed detailing, the scene captures the calm, lifelike atmosphere of the fishes' natural habitat.
The pair of chub themselves are expertly mounted, showcasing their distinctive silvery-gold scales, full bodies, and characteristic fins. Framed in a vintage wooden shadow box case with gilt trim, the piece has a timeless, rustic charm that makes it ideal for collectors of angling memorabilia, country-house décor, or Victorian-style natural history displays.

A unique decorative statement and a wonderful example of traditional taxidermy craft.
