Description

Vintage Styled Zebra Skin Storage Trunk.

This exceptional travelling trunk is a striking blend of craftsmanship, character, and considered design. Thoughtfully hand-crafted from a combination of rich aged brown leather and newer leather, repurposed and composed to evoke the charm of a classic piece, it is likely a later creation inspired by traditional antique trunks. The exterior is distinguished by a bold zebra skin covering across the top and front, lending a unique yet sophisticated aesthetic.

Both durable and visually impressive, the trunk is beautifully detailed with reinforced leather corners, copper tacks, brass pins, and two working brass locks (without keys), all contributing to its refined yet robust construction. Substantial leather carry handles and outer leather banding enhance both its practicality and authentic appearance.

The interior opens to reveal a charming red and white cotton ticking lining, preserving its vintage-inspired appeal. In great, usable condition, this bespoke and well-built traveller's trunk offers an ideal balance of style and function.

Perfect as an elegant storage solution or a distinctive coffee table, this piece brings a sense of timeless sophistication, curated luxury, and understated adventure to any interior.
