Description

Gallery Topped Tripod Wine Table.

A fine late 18th century mahogany gallery top pie crust tripod wine table. The beautiful, elegantly proportioned tripod table with a wonderful shaped top with gallery around the edge, the gallery consisting of turned spindles and rail. The central pedestal composing of a triple column raised on splayed legs. The splayed legs with an overlapping knee design, which suggests Irish origin, raised upon brass cup castors. In fantastic condition and retaining a lovely rich colour and patina.
