Description

Cribbage Board With Masonic Emblem.

An unusual cribbage board made from an old Shotgun Stock. An aluminium game board has been applied to the surface and is engraved 'Bro. John Gray, Lodge Glenrothers, 1549' with a Masonic Emblem and 'August, 1963'. The emblem consists of 'Square and Compass' with the letter 'G'.

Cribbage, or crib, is a traditional British card game that involves playing and grouping cards in combinations to gain points. The objective of the game is to be the first player to score a target number of points, typically 61 or 121. Points are scored for showing certain jacks, playing the last card, for card combinations adding up to 15 or 31, and for pairs, triples, quadruples, runs and flushes.
