Description

Pair of John Hassall Golfing Prints.

A very nice pair of golfing chromolithographs after J. Hassall entitled 'Lost Ball' & 'A Lie'. The colourful golf prints are in modern wooden frames. 'Lost Ball' depicts a golfer looking for his ball in amongst a load of pebbles, being watched by his caddie whilst 'A LIE' depicts the same golfer looking thoughtful, deciding how to play his next shot from a bad lie. He is being watched again by his young caddie.

A very nice pair of golfing chromolithographs after J. Hassall.

Publishing details on the prints:- London, Published by C.E. Clifford & Co. 21 Haymarket, S.W. Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1901, at the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington, U.S.A.
