Description

Golf Book, Olman's Guide to Golf Antiques.

A landmark reference book for golf enthusiasts and collectors alike, Olman's Guide to Golf Antiques & Other Treasures of the Game.

This Subscriber's Signed Limited Edition (No. 155 of 250) is elegantly bound in leather and housed in a matching protective slipcase. Published in 1992, this first edition includes a foreword by U.S. Open Champion Hale Irwin, and is personally signed by both authors, John M. Olman and Morton W. Olman, as well as Hale Irwin himself.

Lavishly illustrated with more than 700 photographs and vintage advertisements, the book showcases the fascinating world of golf memorabilia - from rare and unusual clubs to early golf balls, artwork, books, trophies, and other historical treasures of the game. Each item is beautifully presented with detailed commentary, reflecting the Olmans' deep expertise and passion for the sport's rich heritage.

An essential reference and collector's treasure, this volume is often regarded as the most comprehensive guide ever produced on golf antiques. Whether you are a seasoned collector or newly captivated by the charm of golf's bygone era, this edition offers both knowledge and inspiration - a true celebration of the game's artistry and legacy.
