Description

Antique Hickory Shafted Giant Niblick.

Maybe one of the most popular golf collectibles, the giant niblick. Found in many collections because of its eye-catching enormous oversized head. This club was retailed in London and the rear of the club head stamped 'LB 76 Jermyn Street, London, SW, Saville rustless - iron, guaranteed hand forged'. The club with hand punched dot face markings and hickory shaft with leather grip. The giant niblicks were produced by several clubmakers, William Gibson & Co., Cochranes, Ben Sayer and Hendry & Bishop to name a few. Known as Mammoth Niblicks, frying pan niblicks, they are a beautiful and interesting club for display. Bigger is not always better, the giant niblick was a difficult club to master.
