Description

Golfing catalogue, 'Come to Britain for GOLF'.

This catalogue accompanied the joint exhibition of the same name by Nick Potter and ourselves. The exhibition followed on from the great success of the previous year's exhibition called 'Then & Now'. In the catalogue can be found a wide range of artwork including original watercolours and illustrations by artists such as Frank Reynolds, early and rare prints, engravings, some fine contemporary works, rare ceramics and novelty items, together with highly sought after clubs and balls.

The catalogue has around 190 coloured illustrated items over 27 pages.

This catalogue was produced for the exhibition but as with the other publications we have done they are now being used as a valuable reference source.
