Description

Antique Bronze Plaque Of Harry Vardon.

A rare, MARKES, cast bronze plaque of the Champion Golfer Harry Vardon. The impressive and well known figure of Vardon is modelled in relief and mounted onto a cast moulded bronze frame and shows Vardon in the follow through position of the golf swing. The plaque inscribed to the front 'Harry Vardon, MARKES Sculpt.'. There is some wording above 'Harry Vardon' but we can not decipher it.

Harry Vardon (1870-1937) was a champion golfer and member of the Great Triumvirate of the sport, together with J.H. Taylor and James Braid. During his career, Harry Vardon won 62 golf tournaments, including six British Open titles. He was also well known as a golf course architect and for the Vardon grip which is still the most popular grip amongst professional golfers today.
