Description

Framed Hunting Oil Painting, Waiting for The Guns.

A stunning framed hunting oil on canvas after James Hardy Junior (1832-1889) 'Waiting for The Guns'. This has been done by a very proficient and accomplished unknown artist who has signed the piece 'CF'. This is a very good interpretation of Hardy's Waiting for The Guns depicting a colourful hunting scene. A young man can be seen resting on a wooden gate at the edge of a forest, he is dressed in hunting attire and carries a game bag with a brace of pheasants over his shoulder. His companions are his saddled shooting pony and his three hunting dogs of various breeds. The background shows a wooded area with a mix of bare and foliage-covered trees, suggesting it could be autumn or late fall. The overall style is realistic with great attention to detail in the animals and the landscape.

Frame size:- 62 cm high by 82 cm wide.
