Description

Walz Hardcore Motorcycle, The Dominator.

A custom built motorcycle by Walz Hardcore Cycles, Hockenheim, Germany. An amazing looking softail 1800cc motorbike, single sided swingarm, massive 280 metzeler rear tyre, 160/30/18 front tire that gives the bike great handling. The bike is equipped with air ride, 107 TP motor, baker 6 speed and Goldammer Cycle Works front forks. The bike has to many extras to list but with its clean aggressive lines, silver paint finish and hidden wiring it is a head turner. The motorcycle was declared as first registered on 1st January 1979, with a UK registration from 16th June 2006. As it is a custom built bike to obtain registration in the UK it has been classed as a Harley-Davidson.

Sebastian Vettel bought a custom Walz Hardcore Motorcycle in 2011 to celebrate winning the F1 Championship in 2010 with Red Bull Racing.
