Description

Framed Entomology Butterfly Collection.

An interesting cased taxidermy display of butterflies and moths in a folding late 19th, early 20th century teak cabinet. The display includes some interesting examples and is in its original hinged glass faced deep display case containing a selection of old dried butterflies, the left-hand side with 25 and the right-hand side with 27. The butterflies are in good condition and make a very colourful, fascinating and beautiful artistic wall display.

Closed size: 18 ½ inches high, 12 ¼ inches wide, 5 inches deep.
