Description

Vintage Multiple Tennis Racket Press.

A very good multiple lawn tennis racket press made to hold up to six rackets. The press is made of mahogany, in original condition, and with a good patina. The tennis rackets fit in between the wooden dividers and are tightened with the cast iron crank handle which holds the rackets in place to stop them from warping. This racket press was probably made for a Tennis Club or Country House. The multi press is possibly English made.

A fantastic press.
