Description

Antique Sporting Pen Knife, Tennis, Football.

A folding sporting penknife with unoxidable bronze handle with a ring on the end. A good traditional French manufactured knife by Coursolle, their trademark logo being "adjustable wrenches". The penknife comprises of one large blade, one small blade, a corkscrew and a bradawl. On one side of the handle in raised relief is a football player (goal keeper) and a tennis player on the other, also on both sides in raised relief are the words "DEPOSE". One blade is 3 inches long and the other 1  $\frac{3}{4}$  inches, the long blade with the tool trademark logo and remains of the name Coursolle. The spring mechanism is loose on this knife.

The French Coursolle knife salesman catalogue is for display purposes only and is not for sale.
